

Unrivaled Collective Knowledge at RQM+

At RQM+, one of our greatest strengths is the unrivaled collective knowledge our team brings to your projects. There are several factors to consider when choosing a regulatory and quality partner, and one of the most important is evolving expertise.

Who We Are

The RQM+ team is made of regulatory, clinical, and quality experts who have a true service mindset and the ability to balance regulatory risks with business needs.

Our high-value solutions exceed expectations.

Every project benefits from diverse experience across:

- ✓ CLINICAL SPECIALTIES
- ✓ CLASSIFICATIONS
- ✓ RISK LEVELS
- ✓ GEOGRAPHIES
- ✓ NOTIFIED BODIES
- ✓ NOVEL & LEGACY
- ✓ MEDICAL DEVICE & DIAGNOSTICS MANUFACTURERS

We stay abreast of the regulatory landscape and interpretations through our deep industry connections achieved by:

REGULATORY INSIGHTS
Former FDA, competent authority, and notified body leadership

IN THE TRENCHES
Cutting-edge projects, new regulations, and interacting with regulators to figure it out

INDUSTRY LEADERS
Passionate experts with a strong professional network

COMMITTEE SEATS
Contributing to the content of standards and guidance

Learning and Development Initiatives

We don't rely solely on the individual knowledge and experience of our internal experts. Our team is always learning from each other to develop our collective knowledge.

How do we do it?

- MDR/IVDR leadership council collecting and sharing knowledge ✓
- Integrated learning ecosystem for all team members ✓
- Assessment of lessons learned and knowledge gained at every project completion ✓
- Internal networking, case study sharing, and training conducted monthly on regulatory and quality topics ✓
- Monthly presentations, webinars, and panel discussions ✓
- Director of leadership and development role created to empower our team members ✓
- Performance management system that grows talent, skills, and experience ✓

We help to strengthen the industry by sharing our collective knowledge through webinars and panel discussions full of tips and lessons learned.

Commitment to Clients

We are motivated to continuously improve our collective knowledge because of our commitment to delivering the best solutions to our clients.

Our cutting-edge clients trust us to be the first to interpret new regulations and conduct regulatory submissions on novel devices. We figure it out and get our clients to a successful outcome.

Our team is constantly learning and sharing knowledge, so we have the answers before you even know what questions to ask.

At RQM+ every client gets access to our unrivaled collective knowledge.
